

LOUISVILLE DAILY COURIER.

State Library

VOLUME 28.

LOUISVILLE COURIER
PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
W. N. HALDEMAN & R. T. DURRETT, UNDER THE STYLE OF HALDEMAN & DURRETT,
once Nos. 51 & 53 Third St., Louisville.

DAILY COURIER

TUESDAY, MAY 10, 1859.

13th Nor Latest Telegraph Dispatches, News and Steamboat News, Commercial Matters, etc., see Fourth Page.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING
One square [10 lines] one dollar or less, one inc.
Two squares each additional dollar, $1.00
One square one month, without alteration, $6.00
One square two months, $12.00
One square three months, $18.00
One square four months, $24.00
One square six months, $30.00
One square eight months, $36.00
One square changeable weekly, $40.00, twice $80.00
One square changeable weekly, six months $55.00
For insertion in our newspaper, intended to draw attention to private enterprises, institutions, to inventions, improvements, &c., will be charged at the rate of twenty cents per line.

Advertisement kept on the inside of the paper
The privilege of freely advertising will be extended rigidly to all regular business, and all other advertising in publishing their regular business, to those of the Journal, Society, Charitable and Political Notes, and other news, for each subsequent insertion will not be published unless paid for advance.

No contracts for yearly advertisements, without a guarantee that they will be paid for in advance.

No contracts for yearly advertisements will be discontinued without previous notice to us, nor will any advertisements be less than one year on the rates.

Advertisers are requested to pay cash on delivery for the first insertion, and a sum for each subsequent insertion, and no abatement for length or time.

Excess of advertisements will be charged proportionately to the space contracted for.

INSURANCE.
THOM. S. KENNEDY & BRO.,
GENERAL
INSURANCE AGENTS,
Office over Mark & Downe, South side
Main street, bot. Fourth and Fifth, LOUISVILLE, KY.

FOR Life, Fire, and Steamboat Hull Risks, take in the following responsible and solvent Insurance Companies, severally authorized by license from the Authority of State to transact business in Kentucky, under the laws of the State.

In presenting these Companies to the attention of the community, we do so with every assurance and guarantee of their responsibility, and as being worthy of entire confidence in every respect.

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO. of New York.
Cash Capital, $1,000,000.

FRED. W. WINSTON, President.
FRAZER ABBATT, Secretary.
The Assured participate in the Profits.

CONTINENTAL INSURANCE COMPANY,
No. 15 Wall street, New York.

Cash Capital, $1,000,000
GEO. T. HOPE, President.
H. C. LARSON, Vice President.

W. M. MERRIWEATHER,
R. C. A. CALDWELL,
J. W. GRAHAM,
S. E. DEHAIVEN,
R. T. DURRETT,
G. BAKER,
J. O. LEACH.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.—The Democratic candidate for constable in the Cynthiana district, W. G. Kennedy, has been elected by a majority of 49 over Jas. N. Frazer. We congratulate our friend on his triumphant election, and the Democracy of the Cynthiana district on its complete redemption from Knowledge.

THE COLUMBUS & KENTUCKY CITY CRESCENT, an able and influential Democratic journal, contains in its last issue a powerful article in favor of James Guthrie for President. We shall publish the article to-morrow.

GREAT FALL OF DAY GODS.—Yesterday morning a hawk ran into a mud hole, on Jefferson street, near Floyd, and upset in the mud a large lot of dry goods, one very large hoop skirt, a lot of cotton, both raw and manufactured, and a fashionably dressed lady.

THE COLUMBUS & KENTUCKY CITY CRESCENT, an able and influential Democratic journal, contains in its last issue a powerful article in favor of James Guthrie for President. We shall publish the article to-morrow.

WE received the Paducah Herald at a late hour last night. It contained an article of great ability and power, on "The Right to Steal Goods," which we shall lay before our readers to-morrow morning.

FRED LEWIS and Geo. Gruber, charged with stealing tools from the rock quarry of P. M. Feifer, in the country, were yesterday examined before

Judges Clement and Matlack, who held each to bail in sums of $500 to answer a felony.

WE return thanks to Col. W. A. Putman, of Louisville and Lexington, and Capt. I. B. Walker, of the Walker's old omnibus line, for Cincinnati papers ahead of all others.

ARRESTED.—A man by the name of Small, was arrested yesterday for being noisy, and trying to fight John Harleyco.

A man by the name of John McCollough was yesterday arrested for disorderly conduct.

Kentucky Items.

HORSE TALES.—On Saturday last, a young man, who gave his name as Joseph Jones, of Henry county, made his appearance in our town, having in his possession a rose horse, which had evidently been hard ridden. His offering to sell it, however, was so low, below value, coupled with the contumacious manner he used in question put to him, caused him to be arrested on suspicion of having stolen the horse—a suspicion which, it appears, was fully sustained by a Mr. Dr. Scott, from whom it had been stolen, coming and claiming the horse. Jones is in jail.—Cincinnati Herald.

SUICIDE FRACAS.—We learn that there is a great excitement over the caustic's election in X Middlefield. A Mr. Hall and Mr. Brown, who was shot on Sunday night last by his son-in-law, Samuel S. Rich, and that the latter on his arrival confessed his guilt. The Boston Traveler says:

"First intimation of the presence of any person being around the house was at a quarter past twelve, when two bricks were thrown through the window of the bed-room in which they were sleeping. Mr. and Mrs. Ward got up, and as soon as possible, went to the front door, he being terribly frightened, dared not go out of doors to see who was there, and gave an alarm. All was still for half an hour, when two more were thrown into the kitchen window, when the wife, who was then sitting at the front room, Mrs. Ward leaning against the door, and Mr. Ward walking the room. Mrs. Ward turning around, saw the muzzle of a gun close to her face, and, in a moment, was followed by a great crash, he removed to that instant she sparsely settled window. She stepped aside, and at that instant the gun was fired, and Mr. Ward fell, exclaiming, 'Oh, my God!' One hundred and eight shot holes were穿入 his right breast, his arm and hand being broken. He died in a few moments, the murderer having fled. The woman in the house being too frightened to go out and give an alarm. Rich attempted to shoot himself after committing the murder, but the gun misfired. He is between twenty and thirty years old, and is a hardy laborer. Several times he found girls who were willing to have him, but the town authorities always interfered. About a month ago, however, he succeeded in marrying Miss Ward privately, but he kept steady at work, and was soon regarded as a good citizen. Indeed, so orderly was he for several months, that those who knew him had hopes that he would eventually settle down to a man—Vain hope! Not long since he became savagely drunk, and in his drunkenness, beat his wife, but did not injure her. She was terribly frightened, however, and went home to her father.

THE REAL WANTS OF THE WORLD.—The real wants of the world and the ability of the consumer to pay for it, prove that the product of cotton, in prosperous times, is really less than the interests of commerce require, as when a very full crop is sent to market, as during this year, there is no accumulation of stock, and however rapidly the production in America may increase from year to year, yet constant exertions are diluted to prevent the people from either now or at any time to come.—Low. Democrat.

THEATRE.—Despite the unpleasant weather, a fine house greeted the Martinetts on their first appearance last evening. It seems that age can- not touch these aristates. They appear as youthful and agile as they did years since.—

Madame Desirée still retains that charming youthful air and simplicity that first won our admiration. Philib. Martineti is an active and affectionate husband, while Juliette is a charming and graceful actress.

THEATRE.—The wonderful and dangerous ascent from the stage to the roof of the theater will challenge the admiration of many a strong heart, and for a moment chill the warm heart of many a fair dame. There is a certain attractiveness in this dangerous exhibition, to which we acknowledge ourselfs captive.

IT will be seen by the card which appears in another column, that the Louisville and Port-land Railroad Company have extended a very important addition to their patrons, especially to the Main street portion of them. It has been very annoying to their bus'nessetoffers that ordinarily the whole capacity of the house was taken up by car, so that it was impossible that their street patrons could be accommodated by their new arrangement.

Two 'buses being run from each car—one up Main to Second street, and the other to the intersection of Main and Main streets.

EVERY TRAITOR TO SOUTHERN RIGHTS who has attemped to put in a plea for his treason, has given the Southern people the best of the card to the Northern Democrats.

Then why the attempt to inaugurate the Free-soil movement in Kentucky—and why has there been such a strenuous effort to make it appear that Mr. Magoffin was at the signed sovereignty doctrine of Douglas?

IT is all smoke, after all?—and did the lead of the Louisville Democrat, followed by the Franklin and Lexington Statesman, and other papers, mean nothing?

DO the indignant protests, which have poured upon the Central Committee relative to this new Friesian doctrine, and did the hasty calling of a general meeting, to secure other and additional supplies of raw cotton.

IT thus far, these unceasing efforts have met with but small success, and to this day the British and other European cotton spinners have not found, and are not likely to find, any country that can supply them with cotton except the United States.

On the other hand, if a great convolution, such as we have seen, should take place in Europe, it is evident that those who have had hopes that he would be easily crushed, will be disappointed.

WE suppose the truth is about this, that a small experiment has been tried upon the integrity of the people in the State, and that the result is as follows:—

WE call your attention to our dealers to Mr. C. G. Spencer's sale of a brick cottage and lot, on Jacob street, between First and Brook, which takes place this afternoon on the premises. The house is small, but the lot is very large and desirable.

WE would call attention to the advertisement

of a patent corn shucking machine, in another column.

SEE sale of desirable First street property

advertised by C. C. Green, to be sold next Friday, the 12th inst. This property is located in a No. 1 neighborhood, and sale positive on account of removal of owners.

WE would call attention to the advertisement

of a patent corn shucking machine, in another

column.

SEE sale of desirable First street property

advertised by C. C. Green, to be sold next Friday, the 12th inst. This property is located in a No. 1 neighborhood, and sale positive on account of removal of owners.

WE would call attention to the advertisement

of a patent corn shucking machine, in another

column.

SEE sale of desirable First street property

advertised by C. C. Green, to be sold next Friday, the 12th inst. This property is located in a No. 1 neighborhood, and sale positive on account of removal of owners.

WE would call attention to the advertisement

of a patent corn shucking machine, in another

column.

SEE sale of desirable First street property

advertised by C. C. Green, to be sold next Friday, the 12th inst. This property is located in a No. 1 neighborhood, and sale positive on account of removal of owners.

WE would call attention to the advertisement

of a patent corn shucking machine, in another

column.

SEE sale of desirable First street property

advertised by C. C. Green, to be sold next Friday, the 12th inst. This property is located in a No. 1 neighborhood, and sale positive on account of removal of owners.

WE would call attention to the advertisement

of a patent corn shucking machine, in another

column.

SEE sale of desirable First street property

advertised by C. C. Green, to be sold next Friday, the 12th inst. This property is located in a No. 1 neighborhood, and sale positive on account of removal of owners.

WE would call attention to the advertisement

of a patent corn shucking machine, in another

column.

SEE sale of desirable First street property

DAILY COURIER

Steamboat and River News.

STEAMBOATS LEAVING TO-DAY.

FOR PARTICULARS SEE ADVERTISEMENTS.

JACOB STRADER, DUMAN, GRODNER,
JACOB WILDER, Wright, St. Louis.
POOMONATI, Riley, Ark.
GEN. FISHER, New Orleans.
PROTEIN, Co., Wood, Mem.
FORTUNE, Red River.
HARDY, DON, Louisville, Tenn.
JOHN WELCH, Pitts., Vicks.
EUNICE, McClure, Wheeling.
DUKE, Sanders, Frankfort.
DUKE, D. T., Portland, Florence.
BREAGHT, Vanmeter, Bowling Green.
THE HORSE, Capt., Henderson.
EMPIRE, Conner, Louisville.
EMPIRE, Conner, Louisville.

The River continues to fall quite fast, and the falls are no longer navigable even for descending boats, excepting light draught ones. On the falls last evening there was 5 feet water, and in the canal 8 feet by the pier mark, a fall of 10 feet in the river. The present height of the head of the falls, and about 10 feet at Portland. The weather was lowering, with several hard showers of rain yesterday, and threatening more last night.

By our dispatches from Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, we learn that the river is still falling at those points, and at St. Louis the Mississippi was also steadily falling, though there had been a good rise in the Upper Mississippi.

The lower Mississippi continues at flood height, with no immediate prospect of abatement, and the falls are being rapidly lowered, materially. We hear of a crevase at Lohell's plantation, in West Baton Rouge Parish, about sixteen miles above Baton Rouge, which will overflow numerous producing 3,000 bagsheads of sugar annually.

For Memphis and White River.—The General Pike takes her departure to her new trade-day, in charge of Capt. Jones, with our clever friend, Eugene Bowers, in the clerk's office. The following day she will be bound for her port of arrival, which is the Cincinnati Harbor.

The Gen. Pike changed hands yesterday. She was sold to Capt. Elly Jones and others for the Memphis and New Orleans market.

Capt. Jones is the return, and comes to us highly recommended as a gentleman and boatman.

The Silver Wave, one of the propeller fleet, is now down from Pittsburgh.

The China Commercial reports the sudden death of an interesting monkey on the Jesus K. Bell.

The CONTEMPT CASE.—Capt. Finch, of the Interchange, undergoes trial before the Chancery Court to-morrow for contempt, in running his boat past the Marshal, who had attached her for debt.

The Pacific, from New Orleans, passed Vicksburg yesterday morning. She left New Orleans Saturday.

The Jas. Montgomery, from New Orleans, is at Memphis Saturday. She was due yesterday, and is advised to return to New Orleans this evening. If she does, passengers and shippers will find her at Portland.

The ECLIPSE COMING.—By a special dispatch from Capt. John Strader, of the Eclipse, he informs us of his arrival, to-morrow, at Memphis Sunday evening, only 3 days out. She is due to-night, before day to-morrow, and returns to New Orleans Thursday evening. Her run will be the shortest.

The Jas. H. Fischel from New Orleans, is due this evening, and is advertised to return to New Orleans to-morrow.

The low-pressure Jameson is the mail boat to New Orleans, and is expected to get to New Orleans Saturday. The Clark, R. S. Dunning, is the most correct and courteous on the river.

The War Eagle from Mississippi, brought down our river, and ten thousand dollars in silver coin, sent in from Mexico to St. Louis.

Dawson.—A deck hand named John Nolin fell through the wheel-house of the Glendale Sunday night, and was drowned. He leaves a wife and family, on Lock street, Cincinnati.

We learn from the Cincinnati Gazette, yesterday that the river had fallen sufficiently to leave the sunken Captain Traber high and dry on the landing. The freight is all being removed to the house of G. Brashears & Co., where it will be sold at the auctioneer's. The loss on the freight is not to be estimated.

The Emma Dean is the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.

The Emma Dean was the packet for Carrollton and Madison to-day. She will be withdrawn from the trade as soon as another boat can be purchased.

The LOSS OF THE LUCY MAY BY COLLISION.—The following additional particulars of this disaster we copy from the St. Louis Republican of yesterday:

The C. d' Arapiles was descending the river, and the Lucy May was bound for St. Paul, with a full cargo, and about 100 passengers.

On Friday the 6th inst., when eight miles above Quincey—the light equal and starlight, and the river smooth—she struck a rock, and went over with the Lucy May, striking her about midships on the starboard side, and apparently cutting her to theelson.

In the collision occurred, the Lucy May, "teaching" at the time of the accident.